Dear Mr. Chakravarthy:

I am very pleased to inform you that you have been admitted to the masters program at the Irving B. Harris Graduate School of Public Policy Studies at the University of Chicago. The Committee on Admission and Aid accepted your application based on outstanding academic achievement, professional commitment, and personal motivation. Our decision reflects confidence in your continuing promise as a student. In turn, we are certain that you will contribute greatly to the intellectual vitality of the program.

Further, the Committee has awarded you a Harris Fellowship, the School's most esteemed scholarship. The fellowship covers full tuition ($28,260 for the 2003-2004 academic year) and a stipend of $10,000. As a Harris Fellow, you will be invited to participate in several social and academic occasions during the year. I have enclosed specific information detailing the conditions of your award for the coming year and fellowship renewal procedures for future years; you should review it carefully.

You must inform us of your intention to enroll by April 25, 2003, the candidate reply deadline. To do so, sign and return the Admission Reply Form. Please include the $350 non-refundable deposit with your acceptance to assure your place in the 2003 entering class. The deposit will be credited toward your total costs.

The Admission and Aid Committee extends its warm and sincere congratulations to you. I hope this letter will be a subject of happiness and pride for you, your family and friends. We hope you will be joining us in the fall.

Sincerely,

Ellen Cohen
Director of Admission

P.S. There are several documents and forms attendant with an admission offer, so we have established a web site where you may review and download all the materials you will need to assist in your enrollment here. It is: www.harrisschool.uchicago.edu/current/info.html

Should you have any questions about the information in this letter or at the site, feel free to contact me directly at (773) 834-2576, or via e-mail at cohen@uchicago.edu. I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Jaideep,

Cambridge Judge Business School Scholarship for the Master of Finance (MFin) Degree

I am writing to confirm that following a recent meeting by the MFin Programme Scholarship Committee, it gives me great pleasure to inform you that we are awarding you a scholarship to study the Master of Finance Degree at the Judge Business School, University of Cambridge. Details of the award are below:

Amount: £10,000 contribution towards the Master of Finance tuition fee

Start date: September 2018

The award is subject to you fulfilling any outstanding conditions of your offer, and enrolling in the Master of Finance programme in September 2018.

Please note that if you are successful in gaining scholarship funding from another source, we reserve the right to adjust the value of your scholarship so that the total value of scholarships received does not exceed £57,735. This is so that we can use the additional funds to support other students.

Please contact the Master of Finance Admissions and Marketing Administrator, Laura Spencer (email: l.spencer@jbs.cam.ac.uk) should you have any questions regarding the scholarship offer.

Congratulations on the award of your scholarship.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Simon Taylor
